

Mixed eMotion Theatrix presented their production, Anaïs, A Dance Opera to the inaugural season of Musco Center for the Arts at Chapman University. Mixed eMotion Theatrix dreams big, their production involved projections, live vocals, dancers and beautiful lighting. The group worked quickly and efficiently to tech the production. They are organized and good spirited. The audience loved the performance, it was original and powerful, with gorgeous dancing. We continue conversations with the company to be involved in future projects they develop.
